

Pulse Live Text Messaging

Pulse Entertainment is proud to be the first company in the Philadelphia area to offer Live Text Messaging at our private events. Pulse Live Text Messaging is an interactive way to keep your audience interested throughout the course of the event. All they have to do is text a message to our live operator and look up on the screen for their message. It's that simple.

Pulse Live Text Messaging is the most unique way to make any event exciting and more fun. From chatting with their friends on the big screen, making song requests, flirting to an unknown person, answering trivia questions, and voting live for a winner, Pulse Live Text Messaging keeps your guests engaged from start to finish. Here are some event specific functions of Pulse Live Texting:
